

A karizma mint a megszentelt élet és a szerzetesi közösségek alapja¹

GAÉTANE GUILLEMETTE NDPS

Abstract:

This article explores the role of charisms in religious communities and seeks answers for the following three questions. First, how can one grasp the charism that lies at the foundation of a particular religious order? Second, in what way can the spiritual and institutional dimensions of such charisms be cherished? Third, what responsibility does one have with regard to the special charism of a particular religious order?

Keywords: charism, religious communities, consecrated life, Evangelica Testificatio, Vita Consecrata.
